Libertyland

Welcome to America's Yesteryear... Alive Today in Memphis, Tennessee.

Libertyland is steeped in the rich heritage of America. In Colonial architecture and quaint 18th century shops . . . in the log cabins and stockades of the old Frontier . . . in the Grand Carousel, the song and dance, and the gaiety of Turn-Of-The-Century . . . and in the crafts and trades that grew into America's industry. We've brought back the Good Ole Days and you're invited.

The Land of Family Fun.

Take a train ride on Casey's Cannonball through Colonial America, the Frontier and Turn-Of-The-Century . . . and Casey's Chute, a very special tunnel where you'll see and hear the history of our country. Snack at Huckleberry's on a patio over a lake, or in the Bell Tavern. Enjoy ice-cold watermelon at the Melon Patch or a hot dog at the Frontier Fare, or a hundred other things to eat and drink, while strolling through the trees or relaxing on the Longest Love Seat in the World. Take in an extravaganza of sight and sound in a multi-media presentation inside, or enjoy song and dance at the W. C. Handy Amphitheatre by the water's edge. Hear Dixieland Jazz or see the Delta Dolphins perform. Experience the thrill of the Zippin Pippin or a ride down a water flume in a carved-out log at Old Hickory. Go up and down and round and round on ride after ride. Visit Animal Pals and the Mid-America Arcade. And there's theatre, and shade, and water, and beauty, and laughter . . . everywhere.
